What are some of the distinguishing traits of American culture? Students will learn common pitfalls, the phases of culture shock and how to navigate the changes.

Instructor: Dr. David Karber

1:30PM-3:30PM Intercultural Communication

Location: 跨文化交流

What can we learn about ourselves by reviewing the research about cultural differences East and West? Many theoretical approaches regard Asia and the West to be the dominant contrastive cultural traditions. This class will explore the features of those differences and help you to communicate better by knowing some of the differing norms for behavior and communication.

Instructor: Dr. David Karber

10:00AM-12:00PM Toxic and Intoxicating Leadership

Location: 有害和无害的领导力

Bldg.220A-105

Are there styles of leadership which would be considered toxic in any culture at any time? What are the cultural, historical and contextual apologies for bullies and tyrants? What should followers do? Students will deepen their understanding of communication theory to sharpen their sense of what makes a “good” leader. What are the features which stand out in any culture or any time or any situation? The class will look at historical leaders to consider the differing forces of culture, gender, warfare, geography and climate in the formation of good leaders. How do peoples make it through tough times intact?

Instructor: Dr. John Patrick, Assistant Director of Forensics, Cal State

San Luis Obispo

1:30PM-5:30PM Recreation Center Day

Location: Rec Center 大学生活动中心日

International Student Leadership Program participants will challenge themselves individually on the rock-climbing wall, learn to dance, and engage in some team sports competition.

10:00AM-12:00PM Collaboration

Location: 合作

Bldg.220A-105

What are the various models to get people working together, ranging from command and control through group consensus? Using examples from business, what are the most effective ways that our groups can work together toward a successful outcome? This class will guide our work in teams.

Instructor: Dr. Ben Dewald, Collins College of Hospitality Management, Cal Poly Pomona

2:00PM-4:00PM Team Building Activities

Location: 团队建设

Bldg.220A-105

For any team to succeed, 8 or so essential roles must be carried out with leadership appropriate to each. Learn about these roles, how individuals change roles or take on more than one, and then based on each team's experience and each individual's self-assessment, all roles will be distributed among each team's 5 or so members.

Students will then cluster in new temporary teams according to self-assessment insights and role assignments. These teams will be formed each with a distribution of styles. The activity will culminate with a fun and friendly competition.

The kit of materials for the final project will be distributed to each team.

Instructor: Dr. Ben Dewald, Collins College of Hospitality Management, Cal Poly Pomona

Day 6 – Friday, Jan 27, 2017 – Pomona 第 6 天 – 周五 1/27

10:00AM-12:00PM Public Speaking & Leadership

Location: 公共演讲及领导力

Bldg.220A-105

Public speaking, leadership and professional communication require self-knowledge as well as solid skills. An effective public speaker must know his audience, and that includes the cultural context for the public act of speech. A confident public speaker or communicator is also a good performer. This class will evoke everyone's personal talents, and help to mesh them appropriately with cultural norms so that each participant can shine.

Instructor: Dr. John Patrick, Assistant Director of Forensics, Cal State San Luis Obispo
